ROYAL CANADIAN MINT REPORTS PROFITS AND PERFORMANCE FOR Q1 2026

OTTAWA, ONTARIO – May 22, 2026 – The Royal Canadian Mint (the “Mint”) is announcing its financial results for the first quarter of 2026. These results provide insights into the Mint’s activities, the impacts of market fluctuations on its businesses and its expectations for the next 12 months.

“The Royal Canadian Mint experienced a strong start to 2026 amid continued market volatility,” said Simon Kamel, Interim President and CEO of the Royal Canadian Mint. “The Mint was able to capitalize on positive developments like increased demand for silver and strong gold prices while remaining judicious about our operating costs. The Mint closely monitors market conditions and continues to adapt to the risks and opportunities of a less predictable marketplace.”
