

Do you have a special coin in your pocket?

Every year the Royal Canadian Mint makes special coins called commemorative coins to celebrate or honour a moment in history. Have you ever seen a coin that looks different from the regular ones? See if you can find 5 from the past by looking in your piggy bank, asking family and friends or looking online with someone's help.

Name & Year	What was the special moment in history?	What does it look like?
