The Coin

In 2025, to mark the 75th anniversary of Peanuts, Monnaie de Paris celebrates the famous gang of friends.

The Peanuts gang are group of unique characters created for the comic strip of the same name by Charles M. Schulz in 1950. For 50 years, Schulz wrote and drew daily the adventures of “Good ol’ Charlie Brown”, philosophical Linus and his crabby big sister Lucy, piano-playing Schroeder, attention-grabbing Sally, Peppermint Patty and Marcie, not to mention the beagle Snoopy and his friend Woodstock. Peanuts owes its success to the subtle personalities of its characters, whose encounters continually produced a comic effect.

The worldwide success of the comic strip, translated into no fewer than 45 languages, has made its most emblematic character, Snoopy, an icon of popular culture.
