Coin Story

The Great White Shark, (Carcharodon carcharias), also known as "the great white," "white pointer," "the white shark," or "white death," is a large lamniform shark found in coastal surface waters in all major oceans. The great white shark is known for its size, with the largest individuals known to have approached or exceeded 6 metres (20 ft) in length and 2,268 kilograms (5,000 lb) in weight. This shark reaches maturity at around 15 years of age and can have a life span of over 30 years.
